

Mangroves for Coastal Resilience Project

2022 - 2027

World Bank

Indonesia

NATURE BASED SOLUTIONS

mangroves

The Mangroves for Coastal Resilience Project aims to enhance the resilience of coastal ecosystems and communities by restoring and conserving mangroves. The project includes components for mangrove afforestation, supporting sustainable livelihoods, and strengthening integrated coastal management. These efforts reduce disaster risk, mitigate coastal flooding, and protect biodiversity.

LEARN MORE

<https://projects.worldbank.org/en/projects-operations/project-detail/P178009>

INTERVENTION

Green

HAZARD

coastal flooding
coastal erosion

SCALE

National

RISK REDUCTION BENEFITS

reduce flood risk, erosion control and slope stabilization

DONORS

IBRD

Sustainable Landscapes MDTF

EST. MONETARY COST

(TODAY'S US$)

419

EST MONETARY BENEFITS

Unknown
