

Teresina Enhancing Municipal Governance and Quality of Life

2008 - PRESENT

World Bank

Municipal Secretariat for Planning, Teresina
Brazil

NATURE BASED SOLUTIONS

inland wetlands

The Government of Brazil, through the Municipal Secretariat for Planning, Teresina, is implementing the Teresina Enhancing Municipal Governance and Quality of Life Project for Brazil with the objectives to: a) modernize and improve the management capacity of Teresina Municipal Government in the financial, urban environmental, service delivery, and economic development fields, and b) improve the quality of life of the low-income population of the Lagoas do Norte region of the city. The components of the project include Municipal Management Modernization, City Development and Project Management, Integrated Urban-Environmental Improvement in Lagoas do Norte and Social and Economic Development in Lagoas do Norte.

LEARN MORE

<http://projects.worldbank.org/P088966/br-municipal-apl-teresina-enhancing-municipal-governance-quality-life-project?lang=en>

INTERVENTION

Hybrid

HAZARD

urban flooding river flooding

SCALE

Regional

RISK REDUCTION BENEFITS

redirection & drainage of flood & storm water, storage & infiltration of flood & storm water

DONORS

World Bank

EST. MONETARY COST

(TODAY'S US$)

3.27

EST MONETARY BENEFITS

Unknown
