

South Sudan Resilient Agricultural Livelihoods Project

2021 - 2027

World Bank

South Sudan

NATURE BASED SOLUTIONS

forests, grassland and other vegetation

The South Sudan Resilient Agricultural Livelihoods Project strengthens the capacity of farmers and their organizations to improve agricultural production. It supports climate resilience through agroforestry and tree planting on degraded landscapes, while also enhancing food security, seed availability, and farming practices.

LEARN MORE

<https://projects.worldbank.org/en/projects-operations/project-detail/P169120>

INTERVENTION

Green

HAZARD

drought

SCALE

National

RISK REDUCTION BENEFITS

carbon sequestration

DONORS

ida

EST. MONETARY COST

(TODAY'S US$)

2.03

EST MONETARY BENEFITS

Unknown
