

Water Management and Development Project

2012 - 2019

World Bank

Uganda

NATURE BASED SOLUTIONS

watershed management, inland wetlands

This project focuses on improving integrated water resources management and access to water and sanitation services in Uganda's priority urban areas. Key activities include implementing catchment management plans, strengthening water monitoring systems, and expanding urban water supply infrastructure while enhancing institutional capacities for sustainable resource management.

LEARN MORE

<https://projects.worldbank.org/en/projects-operations/project-detail/P123204>

INTERVENTION

Green

HAZARD

drought
urban flooding

SCALE

National

RISK REDUCTION BENEFITS

reduced loss of water infrastructure, climate adaptation or resilience

DONORS

ida

EST. MONETARY COST

(TODAY'S US$)

18.8

EST MONETARY BENEFITS

Unknown
